DEDICATION

To you, oh building of our dreams,
we the Warrior Staff of 1948,
dedicate our dreams,
our hopes,
and our aspirations in our beloved Warrior.
As you echo and re-echo,
the footsteps of future generations
may you house and protect our Warrior as lovingly as we have assembled it.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

May I congratulate you upon the successful completion of the 1948 edition of the Warrior. You shall always be remembered by this school for your untiring efforts on this accomplishment.

Since your activities were hindered by the loss of our gymnasium, we feel that you have missed a portion of your school life that was very important to you, but your response to this critical condition has been gratifying and we hope you as ex-students will enjoy the new school building upon its completion.

We wish also to express to this community our heartfelt thanks for your support of this annual and for the interest you have shown in this school during the 1947-1948 school term.

C. D. Allen

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Best wishes to a good class of Seniors. May you always set your goals and strive with all your might to attain that goal. You can do anything within reason that is worthwhile if you try hard enough.

HISTORY OF THE SENIOR CLASS '47 - '48

On a bright sunny day September day in 1937, 26 happy, well scrubbed boys and girls were greeted by Mrs. Troy Stinson, teacher of the first grade of Sanger Public School, of this group only four pupils, Ida Mar Ary, Bobby Brown, Ray Nicholas Cherry, and Brooksie Windle are among the graduates of 1948.

The second year with Miss Margueritte Riggs as teacher was a happy year. We got our first taste of arithmetic and also felt the pangs of a hyperdomic needle when we received our vaccination for small pox.

Bruce Anthony, LaVerne Masten, and Mary Stinson joined our class to shine in the joy of being moved to the second floor for our third year class room. Mrs. Winnie Minick patiently taught us our multiplication tables and geography.

Miss Cathleen Gently, our fourth grade teacher, will long be remembered for her psychology in getting us to enjoy studying. Judy Ramsey was our only new pupil during the year.

To our great joy we were allowed to skip the fifth grade since twelve grades were added to our school system.

In the sixth grade, history was our new subject. Our new teacher was Miss Marie Stinson. The ever-witty Wayne Harvey added his name to our class register.

Mrs. Neppie Burroughs, our seventh grade teacher directed our first class play, "For the Lack of a Nail". We greeted this year Reba Hester, Billie Sebastain, Dorothy Satlsman, Bobbie Powers, Marie Britt, and J. D. Jones.

Our teacher for the eighth grade was Miss Ola Mae Davis. Graduation into high school high-lighted this entire year. Mrs. S. B. Powel was our commencement speaker. This was a happy occasion especially for the girls with their first corsages and silk hose (Rayon—due to the war). Virginia McKenzie was valedictorian and LaVerne Masten, Salutatorian.

Initiation into high school was fun. All our subjects seemed hard especially algebra, Home eco. and agg. were fascinating for us. Mrs. Hestaline Burroughs sponsored us. G. W. Crunk and J. Dallas Curtsinger joined us.

Dorothy Belcher, Junior Davis, and Vera Linehan were welcomed as our new pupils. Miss Callis Miller was our beloved sponsor. Our social activities consisted of weiner roast—held in the gym.

Our elation was high as we assumed the role of JUNIORS! That name we all hallow and revere. Everyday was filled with excitement and anticipation. Rings were ordered, banquets were planned, parties held and sponsors changed (9 times) Nancy Porter was our only new pupil.

With poise, grace and dignity we are today known as Seniors! The days and weeks fly by as we plan our activities. A sad note was the burning of the gym. Due to this fact our senior activities were curtailed Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boldin sponsored our class. It is with mixed feeling of joy and sadness that approach the end of our public school career. Grateful to all who have guided us through the years, hopeful that we may prove worthy of their training.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1948 SENIORS

This is now the year of 1953 and the Seniors of '47-'48 have come back to Sanger High for a reunion. Upon going around among the students I find many things have happened to them.

We are taking a survey of DEAR old Sanger High and as we go in the new building (incidentally, it has just been finished) we see the name of J. Dallas Curt-singer written in big black letters on the door of the office. "Sorry, Mr. Allen, but you know how it is."

Hm—look at that cute little secretary in the reception office—why it's Mary Stinson. Guess she just couldn't leave S. H. S.

Down in the Agriculture room we see Mr. McMurray still there and who is that handsome young student teacher—oh, it's Junior Davis. So he finally got through college. Wonder if he still picks cotton at night!

Up in the gym we see Coach Bruce Anthony and the volley ball coach, Billie Sebastian, having a very serious conference, (about sports, of course).

Down in the first grade we see Reba Hester teaching the dear little children, with her quiet stern voice.

And there is Mrs. Chastain, we can understand why she is pulling all her hair out, but why does she keep screaming "Wayne Harvey, you sit down!"

We leave S. H. S. to walk over town to see its changes and we decide to go in Feller's Cafe. We see none other than Ida Mae Ary behind the counter and of course, she is being helped by James Kirk.

As we come out we see a little red pickup come to a sudden stop, why, it's Bobbye Powers, now where did she get the idea for that color?

Now, where is Judy, oh there she is in that maroon plymouth, as usual, but now there's Dickie Jr. along. As you've guessed, she is now Judy Ramsey Bentley.

Speaking of bright colored cars, who's in that yellow pickup—oh, it's LaVerne Masten Odom and doesn't Dale look happy?

Here comes someone down the street, why it's Nancy Porter, we should have known by the blue jeans. By the way, she is an expert at blowing bubbles with bubble gum.

Who is this flying down the street on a motorcycle—we might have known it is Dorothy Saltsman Elrod.

We go down the street and see a big white house that looks like a mansion. Coming out the door to get into the chauffeur-driven car, we see Betty Snider, and of course, she is dressed in the latest fashions. I guess she finally got her rich, older man after all.

And who is that coming down the street in the station wagon full of eggs, butter and children, why it's Vera Linehan Cole.

We hear a screeching sound, but don't get excited it's just Bobby Brown and Irvin Lambert still trying to find a girl.

We see J. D. Jones sitting under a tree scratching his head and trying to make up his mind between Emilee, Peggy and Patsy Ashcraft.

Now back at school we walk into the new science lab and see Carl Sadua showing the students how to prepare oxygen.

School is now dismissed and everyone is leaving. We journey back to town and try to see the rest of our friends.

While waiting on the red light we see a big truck load of cattle. Suprising enough, it has "Cherry's Ranch" written on it. Headed for Fort Worth, as usual.

Then we see a car surrounded by girls. Why—it's G. W. Crunk, still making the girls swoon. I wonder if it is him or the new Ford convertible?

We decide to go into the bank. We find Dorothy Belcher Masten helping. At least she learned her bookkeeping. Someone get a chair for Miss Callie, she might faint.

We pass the Chapman Clinic and find Marie Britt is head nurse. It seems she is very busy watching the new interne, very handsome fellow.

We go into the Banner Store and we find Brooksie Windle Bucklew doing excellent upholstery work.

My, My, how time does fly, I wonder if things will be the same at the close of our next reunion in 1958?

WILL OF THE SENIOR CLASS

We, the Seniors of Sanger High School, class of nineteen hundred and forty-eight, being of feeble mind and breaking health, and reminded of all the uncertainties of life, do hereby state and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the teachers of the "Sanger High Institution for the Cultivation and Growth of Weak-Minded Pupils", we do hereby leave our wishes for their continuance in the field of teaching, for which they have done so well. We also compliment them on their patience and understanding which we found so encouraging. We wish them many more years of continued happiness and the best of luck.

To our witty English teacher, Mrs. Chastain, we leave Spencer Gary to take the place of Wayne Harvey.

To the faculty and school board we will our gratitude, appreciation and thanks for their cooperation and help during the past years.

Because of their constant devotedness to each other, Mary Stinson and Billie Sebastain will their companionship to Dorothy Stanford and Doreen Kline.

Vera Linehan leaves her ability to be the first Senior girl to hook a man to Bobbie Lewter, hoping she will do as well, but Bobbie, keep away from Bill!

To Marilyn Warschun, Brooksie Windle leaves her ability to wear stunning clothes.

Bettie Lou Snider leaves her leadership, many boyfriends and her studious mind to Peggy Thompson.

LaVerne Masten leaves her big, sweet, brown, eyes to Joy Rippey, hoping that she too may use them to the best advantage.

To Clariace Willis, Nancy Porter leaves her pig-tails, and gay, carefree manner. Reba Mae Hester wills her giggle to Jessie Mae Bishop.

Wayne Harvey, the comedian of our class, does hereby will his jokes, pranks, and tricks to Paul Pace.

J. D. Jones wills his (ha) haircuts, and ability to play football to Joe Cobler.

Junior Davis leaves his showmanship to Sammy Spratt, here is luck to you Sammy.

To Billy John Goliday, Nick Cherry leaves his ability to be the football hero to all the girls.

J. Dallas Curtsinger wills to Lockett Elrod his high I.Q. rating and his scholarly mind in the hopes that he too may be an A student.

Marie Britt leaves her height and sweet disposition to Elizabeth Reed.

To Merle Phillips, Dorothy Belcher wills her ability to keep a steady boy-friend.

Bobbie Jean Powers leaves her love for black Chevrolets to Bettie Jane Hood.

Bobby Brown wills his sheepish ways to W. H. Hammons, watch out girls!

To Jimmie Faulkner, Ida Mae Ary leaves her sweet and charming ways in hopes that she too may make friends and Ida has.

Irvin Lambert leaves his spacious stomach capacity, for beverages, to J. R. Lovell.
Carl Sadau does hereby will and bequeath his ability to select slim and fragile women to Troy Miller.

To Billy Ezell, G. W. Crunk leaves his ability to drive a car.

Because of his size, Bruce Anthony wills his height to Melvin-Chapman.

Dorothy Saltsman leaves her love for a motorcycle to Gloria Horst, but watch it Gloria, stay away from the driver!

Judith Ramsey has finally decided to step down and give her place to Madoline Allison.

To the Seniors of '48-'49, we leave Mr. and Mrs. Boldin, because of their splendid cooperation and unexhaustable sponsorship for our last year here in dear old Sanger High.

To the Juniors, the cast of the Senior play leave our acting ability. We sincerely hope they may profit from it.

To the "Goofy Sophs", we leave our gracious manners and politeness for they are certainly in need of it.

To the "Green Fish" we will our courage to brave their next three year term.

To the eighth grade we will the thought of the coming initiation into high school.

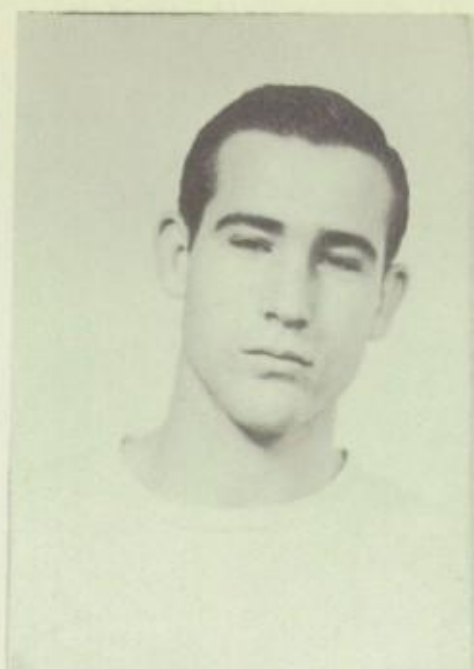

To everyone we will our best wishes and luck.

We the Junior Class of Sanger High School, have enjoyed this school term very much.

We began our year by making plans which would carry us through our last two years in High School.

Our first activity was to engage in a campaign of selling magazines for The Curtiss Publishing Company. This proved to be very successful.

One of the highlights of our year was the donkey basketball game. This was a scream and a success financially.

We have also enjoyed serving the Lions on several different occasions.

We were successful in electing the High School Coronation Queen, and also the boy annual favorite.

The Indians opened the basketball season by winning third place in the McKinney Invitation Tournament.

The Indians lost third in the Sanger Tournament to Krum.

In conference play however, the Indians ended in second place with Lewisville being first place. Then the Indians complimented the Farmers by defeating them for third place in District 17b.

The season standing found the Indians scalping 12 teams to 6 defeats.

We, the undersigned, do hereby wait patiently for the arrival of the little men in white coats, to take us away. We have reserved one blue cell with pink elephants and padded walls at the institution for the insane. For our sponsors we reserve a suite with yellow canaries on pea green padded walls.

We leave our sanity and ability to publish an annual to the Seniors of '48-'49. We will be waiting for them to meet us at the institution this time next year.

Treasured Memories

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are publishing 1948 Annuals for more than 900 Colleges and High Schools. This patronage indicates a wealth of ideas and service which has no doubt made possible the long record of our school annual achievement.
